

Dear Fellow Artists,

We are writing to invite you to become a part of Connecticut's effort to dance for life for those who can't. CT Dancers For Good are proud to be working in concert with Dancers Responding to AIDS (DRA) and Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS (BC/EFA) who are the nation's leading industry-based, nonprofit AIDS fundraising and grant making organizations to raise much needed funds for your fellow artists. This year Connecticut Dancers will join together for the third time on Sunday, November 21, 2010 at the Warner Theater in Torrington, Connecticut to raise not just funds, but awareness and support for a deserving community of dancers and performers.

We hope that you share with us, the belief, that teaching the arts to our young dancers isn't enough, we need to make them responsible and caring members of the community at large and embrace the humanities as well. DRA utilizes the professional dance community for most of its fundraising. In addition, they also depend on young dancers nationwide, in their outreach program. This program involves the non-professional dance community and its young dancers in respect to local fundraising and the education of their own communities. DRA is supported by organizations like New York City Dance Alliance, Dance Masters of America, and the Tremaine Dance Conventions.

It is with great excitement, that under the auspices of DRA and with their support, that we are honored to go forth again this year and continue our Connecticut program – CT Dancers For Good, that will not only augment the amazing efforts of DRA and BC/EFA for the dance and acting communities in New York, but also will give back to those in Connecticut who are in need. For more information on what DRA has accomplished go to www.dradance.org.

Your studio will be involved in a benefit concert that will be produced at a professional venue, the Warner Theater located in Torrington, and be performing with professional guests artists from the dance world and Broadway. To become part of this exciting performance experience you will need to:
RSVP Catherine LaChiomia, Performing Arts Center of Connecticut (contact information below) or Kym Nash of Farmington Dance no later than September 30, 2010 (see attached information for details and dates).

We look forward to hearing back from you and working together on this worthwhile benefit dance concert. Please feel free to contact us with any questions – we are excited to be working together again with CT DRA's past supporters and new members of the CT Dancers For Good team.

Dust off your numbers from last year or show us your new. There will be a entirely new audience for you to share your dances with, and you will get the added gift of doing something wonderful for your community and those who are in need of your help.

The Stars come out so others can shine.
